The sofa is at the heart of a living space, serving as a place to rest, as well as to entertain. It is part of everyday living.

So, our collection is varied in style to adapt to a range of customized décors. There is such a wide variation in today's home décor that we seek seating that can take center stage in a modern apartment or a more traditional style home.

The Chesterfield Sofa is the perfect example of a statement piece that can adapt to a range of stylish surroundings. Whether the task is for a small space, comfort, traditional or edgy style, we have a sofa to meet your design needs.

The Humphrey Sofa has a Sinatra-era influence. The tufted, chocolate leather is a rich look, enhanced by the mid-century-styled metal legs. All-in-all, the Humphrey steals the show with its modern classicism and versatility.

Screen

No longer restricted to the boudoir, the 3- or 4-panel screen abounds with decorative and functional appeal. Opt for metal screens that add a splash of architectural flavor, dimension and height to a décor. Or select a more traditional style, such as a French Country inspired option that can break an oversized open floor plan into more intimate spaces.

Find a selection of paneled screens that stand-apart so you can offer your clients distinctive options. Among our selection of paneled screens, you will find beautiful artistic displays that can be a more affordable centerpiece than large scale artwork for a room.
