ARTLIFTING

ALL ARTWORK IS © BY THE INDIVIDUAL ARTISTS AND LICENSED EXCLUSIVELY THROUGH ARTLIFTING.

Liz Powers began her mission in Boston when she was 18. After securing a grant from Harvard to create art groups in homeless shelters, Liz was immediately struck by the incredible talent that she saw. Amazing works of art were being produced only to end up forgotten in the closets and basements of shelters. After observing that the same problem existed at thousands of art programs across the country, Liz became committed to helping share their creations with the world. She realized that art could be a transformational path to financial stability for these artists and countless others nationwide; they just needed a digital marketplace to connect with a larger audience.

In November of 2013, Liz and her brother Spencer Powers founded ArtLifting with four Boston artists. During their first week of operations, those four artists earned thousands of dollars and were interviewed by national and local media—truly a life-changing experience for each of them. Today, ArtLifting has expanded to 19 cities across the United States.

For more information visit www.artlifting.com

The Gift Wrap Company is honored to join ArtLifting on their journey!

10% of all profits from this collection will be donated to artlifting's mission

Through this collection of journals and notes featuring the unique bio of each artist, we hope to aid ArtLifting in their efforts and expose these talented artists to the gift market.

Despite living with Retinitis Pigmentosa (RP), a degenerative eye disease that ultimately causes complete blindness, Anne Dove began making art full-time once she became legally blind. She enjoys the unpredictable nature of alcohol inks and mono printing. Anne also creates collages because of the surreal and symbolic nature of the art and how she can find meaning in what may initially appear senseless or absurd.

andrew weatherly

Andrew Weatherly loves blending colors to create unique paintings. His perseverance has helped him overcome many of the obstacles a person with Down Syndrome often faces. He is proud that his artwork has been sold nationally. His inspiring story has been shared in various media outlets, including a short film shared by Ashton Kutcher.

ArtLifting empowers artists impacted by homelessness or disabilities through the celebration and sale of their artwork.

artlifting is about creating opportunity, empowerment, and validation.

We offer artists the chance to secure their own income through the sale of original paintings, prints, and products. As a social enterprise, we are using "business for good."

We are delighted to have worked with the amazing Ana Davis for 5 years!
As we celebrate this anniversary, we look back on the many beautiful, hand-painted designs Ana has shared with us over the seasons and look forward to continued success from this new release.

ana's fresh take on classic motifs bring style and whimsy to every occasion.
