cooking with cast iron

A cast iron skillet is perfect for preparing a satisfying supper, a baked Brie, a hot dip or a tasty dessert in a snap. Ready to serve hot from the oven, barbecue or even the campfire, will retain heat longer while you enjoy.

Hand wash with mild soap to preserve the natural non-stick properties in order to enjoy the skillet for years to come. Our skillets are pre-seasoned, but as with all cast iron, they should be washed, dried and then re-oiled ready for the next use. This will reduce the chances of rusting as well. Very important also to never use a metal knife or utensil in the cast iron skillet, to avoid damaging the natural non-stick finish of the seasoned skillet.

no sugar added

All the rich taste you would expect from Gourmet du Village with 'No Sugar Added'. Just add hot milk and enjoy.

This collection of Hot Chocolates contain 'No Added Sugar' and are sweetened with sucralose. Although not sugar free, the sugars in these are naturally occurring in select ingredients. The result is a taste filled product with much lower sugar and calorie values than our regular Hot Chocolates. They are also a good source of fibre.
